

Looking for America: Volume Westward Ho

A Journey of Discovery and Self-Reflection

The American West is a land of vast and often contrasting landscapes, from the towering peaks of the Rocky Mountains to the sun-baked deserts of the Southwest. It is a region that has been shaped by centuries of human history, from the Native American tribes who first called it home to the European settlers who arrived in the 19th century. In "Looking for America: Volume Westward Ho," renowned photographer and writer Jonathan Kahn explores this diverse and ever-changing region, capturing its natural beauty, cultural heritage, and the stories of its people.
