On Christmas Eve, Zoey went to bed early, dreaming of all the wonderful things she would find under the tree. But when she woke up the next morning, she was in for a big surprise. Her favorite present was missing!

Zoey was heartbroken. She searched the whole house, but she couldn't find her present anywhere. She even asked her parents, but they said they didn't know where it was either.

Zoey was about to give up hope when she had an idea. She decided to follow the clues to find her missing present.

The first clue was a piece of wrapping paper. Zoey followed the paper to the living room, where she found a pile of presents under the tree. She searched through the presents, but she couldn't find her present anywhere.

Zoey was starting to get discouraged, but she didn't give up. She followed the next clue, which was a candy cane. The candy cane led her to the kitchen, where she found a plate of cookies. She searched through the cookies, but she couldn't find her present anywhere.

Zoey was about to give up again when she saw a small box under the table. She picked up the box and opened it. Inside, she found her missing present!

Zoey was so happy that she had found her present. She couldn't wait to open it. She tore open the wrapping paper and gasped. Inside the box was a beautiful doll.

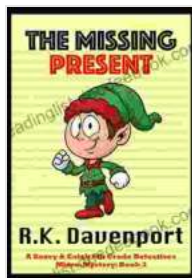

Zoey couldn't believe her eyes. She had always wanted a doll like this. She hugged the doll tightly and thanked her parents for finding it.

Zoey's parents were just as happy as she was. They had been worried that they would never find her present. They were so relieved that she had found it on her own.

Zoey spent the rest of Christmas Day playing with her new doll. She was so happy that she had found her missing present.

The Missing Present Mystery was a fun and exciting adventure. Zoey learned that she could never give up, and that she could always find what she was looking for if she just followed the clues.

The end.
