Born in 1897 in Tennessee, Hilton Hotema's early life was marked by extraordinary experiences that shaped his future path. As a young boy, he reportedly witnessed a series of inexplicable events that left an indelible mark on his psyche. These experiences, including visions of celestial realms and encounters with otherworldly beings, ignited within him a deep yearning for understanding the mysteries of existence.

Driven by an unquenchable thirst for knowledge, Hotema embarked on a lifelong journey of study that spanned various cultures and ancient traditions. He delved into the wisdom of ancient Egypt, Greece, and India, absorbing the teachings of alchemy, astrology, and esoteric philosophy. It was during this period that he claimed to have received a profound initiation from an enigmatic group known as the "Masters of the Living Light." This momentous event, Hotema believed, bestowed upon him the ability to perceive the flow of time in its multidimensional complexity.

The Hotema System: A Synthesis of Ancient Wisdom

The Hotema System, developed by Hilton Hotema over several decades, represents a comprehensive body of knowledge that encompasses cosmology, numerology, and ancient teachings. At its core lies the belief in the cyclical nature of time and the interconnectedness of all things.

Hotema taught that the universe operates according to a complex system of cycles, rhythms, and patterns. These cycles manifest on multiple levels, from the microcosm of the human body to the macrocosm of the cosmos itself. By understanding these cycles and their interaction, individuals can gain a deeper comprehension of their own lives and the world around them.

Numerology plays a central role in the Hotema System. Hotema believed that numbers possess inherent qualities and vibrations that can influence our lives. By studying the numerological patterns associated with our birth dates, names, and other personal data, we can gain insights into our strengths, challenges, and life purpose.

The Hotema System also incorporates elements of ancient wisdom, drawing inspiration from the teachings of Pythagoras, Hermes Trismegistus, and other luminaries. Hotema believed that these ancient traditions contained profound truths that could be rediscovered and applied to contemporary life.

The Time Seer: Navigating the Currents of Time

Central to Hilton Hotema's teachings is the concept of time. He believed that time is not a linear progression but rather a multidimensional reality, with past, present, and future existing simultaneously. As a "Time Seer," Hotema claimed to possess the ability to perceive the flow of time and navigate its currents, gaining insights into both the past and the future.

Hotema's teachings on time emphasize the importance of living in the present moment while being aware of the potential consequences of our actions in the future. He believed that by understanding the cyclical nature of time, we can make choices that are in alignment with our highest potential.
