Wolverhampton Trams

Wolverhampton's tram system, known as the Midland Metro, is a modern and efficient light rail network that serves the city and its surrounding areas. The system consists of two lines:

1. Line 1: This line runs from Wolverhampton St George's to Birmingham Bull Street, connecting the city center with the neighboring metropolis.
2. Line 2: This line branches off from Line 1 at Wednesbury Parkway and continues to Brierley Hill, providing access to the eastern suburbs.

Tram Routes

The Wolverhampton tram network covers a wide area, connecting key destinations within the city and beyond. Here is a summary of the tram routes operated:

* Wolverhampton St George's to Birmingham Bull Street: This route operates throughout the day, with trams departing every 10-15 minutes. The journey time from Wolverhampton St George's to Birmingham Bull Street is approximately 30 minutes. * Wednesbury Parkway to Brierley Hill: This route operates less frequently than Line 1, with trams departing every 20-30 minutes. The journey time from Wednesbury Parkway to Brierley Hill is approximately 15 minutes.

Tram Fares

Fares on the Wolverhampton trams vary depending on the distance traveled. Single fares start from £2.50, while day passes and weekly tickets offer more economical options for frequent travelers. You can purchase tickets at tram stops, on the Midland Metro app, or from the driver on board.

Tram Accessibility

Wolverhampton trams are fully accessible, with low-floor entrances and ramps for wheelchair users. Each tram also features dedicated spaces for wheelchairs and mobility scooters.

Wolverhampton Buses

In addition to the tram network, Wolverhampton is served by a comprehensive bus network operated by National Express West Midlands. Buses provide a flexible and affordable mode of transport, connecting different parts of the city and surrounding areas.

Bus Routes

The Wolverhampton bus network covers a wide range of destinations within the city and beyond. Here are some of the key bus routes operated:

* City Centre to Wednesfield: This route connects the city center with the northern suburb of Wednesfield, passing through key areas such as the University of Wolverhampton and Wolverhampton Railway Station. * City Centre to Bilston: This route serves the eastern suburbs of Wolverhampton, including Bilston Town Centre and the Wolverhampton Science Park. * City Centre to Penn: This route connects the city center with the western suburb of Penn, providing access to the West Midlands Safari Park and other attractions.

Bus Fares
